STAT

Mr. Casey committed himself to this in a telephone conversation with [REDACTED]. As you will note, he will do it IF he is in the country at that time.

STAT

I have put in my tickler for mid-March when his plans should be more certain.

Dear

STAT

As is usually the case, I have problems about my schedule. There is a chance that I will have to be abroad in early April. Handle it any way you like. You can scratch me or you can put me down with the understanding that I may have to bow out and that if I do, I will provide a substitute and have somebody cover the ground I would intend to cover.

Yours,

William J. Casey
